

Erica Darley

Human Resources Director

Bio

Erica Darley is Human Resources Director at the Center for Growth and Opportunity at Utah State University. Prior to her current role, Erica served as the HR specialist for Strata, an Area Director for the Boys and Girls Club, and as a Development Officer for Intermountain Foundation, the entity that oversees fundraising programs within Intermountain Healthcare. As HR Director, her goal is to help perpetuate the mission of the organization, and to facilitate collaboration and support work within the organization.

She has extensive experience in non-profit management, HR relations, workforce planning, talent acquisition, employee engagement, board development, major gift fundraising, and community relations.

Erica Darley has lived in the Cache Valley for more than 20 years. She graduated from Utah State University in 2001 with a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology and Human Development.

Contact
 erica.darley@growthopportunity.org